Description

Polo is a family owned company, founded in 1991 based in Cacak. The company's first activities were vinegar production and acetic acid distribution. The company continues to do this activity today. Over the years, the company has expanded its business to hot fruit and vegetable processing. The company today has an assortment of over 40 processed fruit and vegetable products. All Polo products are free of preservatives and additives, made from fruits and vegetables only from Serbia. In addition to the domestic market, the company markets its products to the markets of USD, Canada, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Montenegro.

Polo Premium is our company's new premium product line. Polo Premium chocolate plums and Polo Premium fruit spreads with no added sugar are two product groups the company goes on the market.
